

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg. 200-201 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

The Janesville Gazette is a member of the Wisconsin State Press Association and publishes its uncompromisingly for the benefit of the community.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches received by it or not otherwise published in this paper and also the local news published herein.

THE NEW TAXPAYERS.

The new income tax law will round up a great new army of taxpayers, with all unmarried men assessed when their incomes are over $1,000, and all married men with incomes over $2,000.

In the hands of many people income taxes have been associated only with persons of considerable prosperity. Many who strongly favored the original law never supposed it would be extended to their own moderate earnings. They felt quite comfortable while George was allowed to do it, but it will seem a little different now they are included.

When a new source of taxation is made available to legislators, always work it to the limit. War time brings new burdens and leads to new developments of taxation. It was so in England, where the income tax dates back to the hills of the Napoleonic wars. It is apt to prove true that forms of assessment once introduced tend to become fixed. So the new income tax payers are quite likely to find themselves permanently on the list, though the rate should be reduced at the close of the war.

Unmarried men working for about $25 a week probably never thought the law would be brought down to hit them. But now like the big bankers and manufacturers, they too must struggle with the intricacies of an income tax bill. For a week, however, the tax will be but $5. It is an insignificant sacrifice compared with the soldier's. And these unmarried men would spend that amount any time on a blow-out with the boys.

It will not pay to think the internal revenue men will forget about you. As they are appointed in Washington, they are not inclined to play local favorites. It will save trouble if everyone will promptly walk up and settle.

ECONOMY NEEDED.

While the United States is engaged in this tragic European war every wise economy possible should be practiced by the people. This is especially true of the farmer and small merchant in the rural districts and small cities and villages scattered throughout the land.

Let us constantly keep in mind that request of Frank A. Vanderlip of New York "that money should not be hoarded for new enterprises, but that all the nation's resources should be used for the one great purpose." This is both national and wise.

Every energy of the rural sections of this nation should be turned to increasing our agricultural strength. The crops and still bigger crops must be raised, for we are the granary of the world. Russia has long held that name, but the chaotic conditions there have robbed that country of its great ability.

Food is one thing that the United States and its allies must have in ever increasing quantities. If Germany is to be overwhelmed, and that is what this country went into the war to do, success must be achieved. If the farmer will put his shoulder to the wheel, raise big crops and invest his well-earned profits in Liberty bonds which are to be reinvested by the government for supplies purchased right here in America, success will be doubly easy.

ADDED IMPETUS.

This snow flurry brings home to those left behind that "somewhere in France" and "anywhere in the United States" our soldier boys are having their first taste of winter weather. Sleeping in hastily constructed shacks or even in tents, they are starting on their real training for foreign war. This should give added impetus to the sale of the Liberty bonds.

The publication of the names of the men who gave up their lives when their vessel was sunk, returning from a foreign shore, is also an added incentive to promote the raising of money for war purposes. Tales of the wanton cruelty of the German sailors who shot down helpless women wearing white rags from the decks of sinking neutral vessels, should make the determination firmer to add dollars to the men already called into service.

This is the last week of the local campaign, and while the figures thus far indicate a strong, healthy growth, still they should increase by thousands daily so that our boys may have what they need to fit them for their grueling service that will come later. Let everyone in Rock county do their bit.

MORE POLITICS.

While the death of United States Senator Paul Hastings is most deplorable from any point of view you may look at it, it is a calamity to Wisconsin at the present crisis that will be hard to overcome. It means the injection of politics into state affairs just at this time when politics should be absolutely tabooed in conversation. It means a special election with numerous candidates for the office, both republican and democrats, seeking political preferment. Washington authorities look upon it as a test of the power of La Follette in Wisconsin and this means that this element will have a candidate in the field whose election would add nothing to the honor of the state already under the cloud cast over it by the utterances of its senior senator. With the unsettled conditions that exist a special election is to be deplored, but if it must be, all loyal citizens must rally to the support of some particularly strong candidate and stand firmly behind him to assert the loyalty of Wisconsin to the federal government by sending to Washington a man whose loyalty is unquestioned.

LIBERTY BY BONDS.

The second issue of Liberty bonds is swinging along at a rate highly pleasing to the government agencies handling it. Occasionally there is a little lapse of confidence as to the ultimate outcome, but that always happens in any such tremendous undertaking.

But we may well feel confident that when the books are closed next Saturday the $3,000,000,000 asked will be subscribed and probably the maximum of $5,000,000,000 will be written on the books of the government.

The more rapidly we press our war measures, the greater our earnestness in facing the problems of the future, the sooner the world will be back in its normal stride and commerce resume its old channels of trade.

Having endangered the lives of several children and nearly smashed their own automobile and lost their own lives by a quick turn around a corner, many motorists proceed well satisfied that they have saved two seconds.

Some people who haven't been able to follow intelligently the issues of the war because it took all the time to read about the world series, are still unable to learn about the war because they want to read the baseball dope for next spring.

If the college students help out railroad congestion by handling freight as has been suggested, it is believed their trained minds will evolve the most scientific and efficient method of smashing trunks.

The fact that a man wants peace now does not prove that he will volunteer for the front line trenches when the Germans get ready to collect that indemnity from us.

Liberty bonds are practically guaranteed by the government against any decline in value, as they are convertible into any succeeding issue at a higher rate of interest.

The report from Russia that its railroads are likely to be all tied up with a strike, suggests that that country is now getting all the advantages of free government.

It is with a feeling of patriotic self-sacrifice that some people consent to buy a Liberty bond that is sure to sell for more money as soon as the war is over.

Those who could buy Liberty bonds but don't can no doubt prevent their friends from finding it out by sneaking home on the back streets after dark.

Some of these people who look so downcast haven't sent a boy to the war, but are merely grouchy because they were asked to have a wheatless day.

The kid farm help feel that they have invented a much more efficient method of picking apples consisting in shaking them off the trees.

Every time the Germans are driven back, some people become more certain that the United States can't win this war.

This air that the inventors are going to draw their power from is probably hot air.

BUY A BOND.

If you haven't bought a bond as yet, go do it right away. Your Liberty bond is a mortgage on the good old U. S. A. The money you are lending to your dear old "Uncle Sam" will buy new decorations for the palace at Potsdam.

The war that's going on right now means a mighty lot to you; Today a foe is firing on the Red, Our homes are now endangered, our future is at stake, So do your bit for what you have, and for your children's sake.

Just try and get it in your head that we are in the game. That though we are too old to go, our coin can quench the thirst. The country which has favored you, of which you should be fond, Just asks a trifle in return, so go and buy a bond. —Simon T. Campbell, Avalon.

ON THE SPUR of the MOMENT

ROY E. MOULTON

A LITTLE SLICE OF LIFE The other night old Charlie Butterfield and I, three seats, two for Charlie and one for me, attended a show called "Misalliance" written by George Howard Shaw. Who has the finest camouflage, hints and Sarlatonic on the English Isles. I thought it was a waste of a show, but every time I cackled, old Charlie would turn around and look at me and say: "Where have you got that stuff?" There was an empty young thing who sat right behind us, and she didn't know whether Shaw was a preacher or a politician. It was fifty-fifty. They thought every body else in the audience was bawdy. Then the airplane came crashing down. Through the greenhouse and nobody laughed except Charlie and the girl and you could have heard them for a mile. All of which goes to show that to tickle some People, you have to smash 'em in the face with a hammer.

One idea of prosperity: An Albany man has a wife who collects alimony from three former husbands. Zero in conservation. It is urged that people save the garden snakes as a war measure. They destroy crop-eating rodents. THE TIME TO SAVE SNAKES WAS BEFORE THEY STOPPED MAKING IT. Soldiers going away, Osculation. The whole country's A union station.

OSCULATION IS THE THIEF OF A champion soldier kisser of Sea Girt week has all she can attend to

THE TIME TO SAVE SNAKES WAS BEFORE THEY STOPPED MAKING IT. Soldiers going away, Osculation. The whole country's A union station.

OSCULATION IS THE THIEF OF A champion soldier kisser of Sea Girt week has all she can attend to

THE TIME TO SAVE SNAKES WAS BEFORE THEY STOPPED MAKING IT. Soldiers going away, Osculation. The whole country's A union station.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest.

BREAD AND JAM.

I wish I was a poet like the men that write in books. The poems that we have to learn on valleys, hills and brooks, I'd write of the children like an 'know an understand. An' when the kids recited them the folks would call them grand. If I'd been born a Whittier, instead I'd write a poem now about a piece of bread an' jam.

I'd tell how hungry children get all afternoon in school. An' sittin' at attention jest because it is the rule; An' lookin' every now an' then up to the clock to see. If that big hand an' little hand would ever get to three; I'd tell how children hurry home an' give the door a slam. An' ask their mothers when they have a piece of bread an' jam.

Some poets write of things to eat an' sing of dinners and feasts, An' praise of dishes they enjoy, an' some folks sing of wine. But they've forgotten, I suppose, the days when they were small— An' hurried home from school to get the wheat bread of all; They don't remember any more how good it was to cram. Inside their hungry little selves a piece of bread an' jam.

I wish I were a Whittier, a Stevenson or Burns, I wouldn't write of hills an' brooks, or mossy banks and fountains, I wouldn't write of rolling seas or mountains towering high. But I would sing of chocolate cake an' good old apple pie. An' about all there is beyond the slightest doubt is bread an' jam we always get as soon as school is out.

now. The boys just march around the block and come back. Some of them have passed in final farewell as high as ninety times. The entire national army is passing through Sea Girt.

We are moving to Elmhurst, the famous old place where the last of the famous Shawnee Indians gave up the ghost more than ninety years ago with a tract in one hand and a bottle of nose paint in the other. There is a legend to the effect that there was once an elm in Elmhurst.

Michigan judge announces that experiments have convinced that 50 percent of criminals under thirty could be saved from lives of crime by surgery. Yes. Cut out their booze.

Edgerton News

Edgerton, Oct. 23.—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Leary on Monday. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Another large shipment of eastern sheep arrived last night at the feed sheds. About three thousand sheep are quartered at the marshes north of the city.

Mrs. Theo. Johnson is spending a few days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. J. Marcus at Janesville.

Despite the storm last evening the meeting of the City Federation of Women clubs held at the Liberty was well attended. The reports of the delegates who attended the convention at Madison were given. Professor P. O. Holt addressed the meeting on the work of the Red Cross.

Mrs. Theo. Smith of Tomah is a guest at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Stone.

Several of the employees at the local Ford Garage were at Janesville last evening in attendance at a Ford banquet and meeting held at the Myers Hotel.

Attorney Grubb was a Madison business called on Monday.

Mrs. J. E. Francis of Janesville is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bergan.

Mrs. C. P. Smith entertained the croquet club last evening at her home on Third street.

H. H. Drew returned from Milwaukee yesterday where he has been with Mrs. Drew who is receiving treatments in a sanatorium in that city.

The country which has favored you, of which you should be fond, Just asks a trifle in return, so go and buy a bond.

THE first annual convention of community clubs of Rock county will be held at Fulton on Friday afternoon and evening of this week, October 26th.

There will be a meeting of delegates of all the community and farmers' clubs of the county at Fulton. The meeting will be in connection with the annual convention of the Fulton social center.

Delegates from eleven other farmer clubs of Rock county will be present and plans laid for an affiliation of these clubs. The object of the affiliation is to bring the different communities of the county in closer relationship so each community can benefit by the experience of the other.

Also to make it possible for all to cooperate for the accomplishment of an object that will be of mutual interest to the home and farm life of the people of the county. There are many families can be benefited and farm life made richer and more satisfactory if all these societies will combine and work together for these things.

The organization of the community farmers' clubs of all kinds will be perfected at this meeting. The afternoon meeting will be held at the hall at 2:30. Prof. C. J. Madison will speak on community clubs. Prof. Otis of Madison will speak on the value and results of co-operation. Supper will be served at the hall at the close of the afternoon meeting from 5:30 to 7:30 at 25 cents. The evening meeting will begin at 7:30 in the church. Prof. Otis, Mr. Markham and others will speak at that meeting. Music and recitation will help make these meetings attractive. Every farmer and his family in Rock county is invited to attend. Great good to the farmers of Rock county may come from these meetings.

HARVEST THE LARGEST CROP OF POTATOES IN YEARS AT WAUPACA

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Waupaca, Wis., Oct. 23.—Waupaca county farmers have harvested the largest crop of potatoes in five years, in spite of the early frost and the drought recently, as there is no blight and little scab showing.

Aided by the hundreds of school children who were released from the city and rural schools during the past two weeks, the potatoes are practically all picked and safely sheltered and thousands of bushels have been brought here and to the warehouse centers, where the farmer secures the highest cash price on delivery.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 23.—Lawrence college has three new buildings this year, the total cost of which will be about $270,000. The Russell dormitory for women is nearing completion. It was erected as the result of a gift of $100,000 by Mrs. Sage, wife of the prominent Wall street broker. The new men's chapel and library plant are also well under way, the former costing about $115,000.

Around The State

Citizens Asked to Behave.

Beloit, Oct. 23.—The cost of policing Beloit has been increased by the Beloit common council is requesting citizens as a matter of economy to behave. The council is economizing in the police department by adjusting the salaries and cutting the necessary increase in the force as low as possible.

War Economy. Milwaukee, Oct. 23.—Fancy twisted rolls and "dolloped up" bread has been eliminated. Milwaukee, as a war economy measure, all the "fixins" on breakfast loaves and bread cost money in labor. The staff of life hereafter will be perfectly plain.

Madison, Oct. 23.—Examination of children in Madison public schools has brought about an improvement in the health of the children. The report of Dr. H. H. Prince indicates a great improvement throughout the city.

Joy, Then Sorrow. Rhinelander, Oct. 23.—While still rejoicing over a letter to the effect that he would be home on a furlough for Christmas, Mrs. E. J. Charren of this city received notice of the death of her brother, Eugene H. Charren, a Canadian Fusilier, who was killed in service in West Flanders.

High Wages. Fond du Lac, Oct. 23.—Firemen have received the city commission for a $15 increase monthly in their salaries, contending that they are unable to pay their household expenses with their present salary of $70 per month.

Will Be Tried as Slacker. Madison, Oct. 23.—Under indictment as a slacker, Byron Nelson, son of Congressman John M. Nelson, of the University of Wisconsin, will be brought here from Canada for trial. Nelson is now on his father's ranch in the Dominion. The young man was arrested last June without registering and was married last August to Miss Anita Pleuss of this city.

William Chandler, another Madison youth who received a furlough to Canada, registered with the American consul at Spring Coulee.

Violates Highway Laws. Madison, Oct. 23.—Because his automobile collided with a car driven by a 20 year old woman, Herbert C. Rindy of this city has been arrested on the charge of violating the highway laws. The case is one of the first of its character ever started in the state. Rindy asserts that Rindy failed to give him enough of the road. The hearing in the case will take place next Thursday.

Fortune into Bonds. Fond du Lac, Oct. 23.—Edwin A. Carey of this city has not only given himself but his entire fortune as well to Uncle Sam for the state. The young man, who received a heritage of $5,000 from his father's estate, has invested the entire amount in Liberty bonds and has enlisted himself in the cavalry. He is now stationed at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming.

Municipal Markets. Marinette, Oct. 23.—A municipal fuel yard and public fish market are only two of the things planned by Mayor Jacob Wittig to reduce the cost of living for residents of this city. He plans to buy a light tract of timber, have it cut by city employees and sold at cost. Fish will be sold at cost, and the executive intends to buy foodstuffs in carload lots and sell direct to the consumer whenever necessary.

Off to School. Manitowish, Oct. 23.—Victor Kinick, who has been at Camp Custer with the national army recruits, has been granted a furlough and returned home yesterday. Kinick was honorably discharged from the infantry and enlisted in the reserve medical corps and was granted a furlough to continue his studies in Marquette university at Milwaukee, where he will go tomorrow.

May Leave La Crosse. La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 23.—Rev. Finch A. Clarke, pastor of the North Presbyterian church here, has received a call to the First church in Wausau. He is a graduate of Carroll college at Wausau. His decision has not yet been made.

Years for Young Woman. La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 23.—Miss G. Lucille Hammond, 19, graduate of the Sparta high school, student of the state university for one year, and daughter of prominent Sparta, resident here, was sentenced to serve two years at Waupun by Judge Higbee when she admitted cashing a forged check at Bangor to get $300 to buy fine clothes for herself. She will be paroled.

Without Sugar. La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 23.—La Crosse is in the throes of a sugar famine. Wholesale grocers haven't a single pound of it, seventy-five per cent of the retail grocers are without it; most of the big candy factories have only a small supply and the manufacturer will have to stop his machinery if he doesn't get some at once.

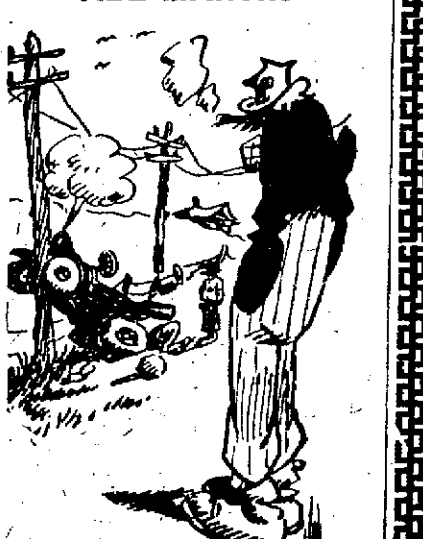

Good Prospects. Appleton, Wis., Oct. 23.—With a majority of the old members back, an abundance of promising material in the freshman class, prospects are good for a successful mens glee club, at Lawrence College this year.

All College Club. Appleton, Wis., Oct. 23.—The All-college club of Lawrence college, on Saturday, voted on the question of abiding by the honor system, adopted last year, the vote being unanimously in favor of the honor system.

Grand Rapids, Wis., Oct. 23.—Chester Severance sent his friend, A. F. Nelson, a horned toad, picked up near Waco, Texas, where the boys are at camp. Mr. Toad will be given a nice little box near one of the radiators at the Elks' Club, this winter, where the habits of the place can examine his peculiarities at leisure.

The toad is not poisonous like the horned viper, still his formidable horns create a feeling of respect, not present in humanity toward the hornless members of the species.

ABE MARTIN

If we could only hear ourselves eat as others hear us. "I was almost too fat to eat today," said Miss Tawney Apple, today.

HOLLAND HAS MORE GOLD THAN NEEDED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

The Hague, Netherlands, Oct. 23.—The position of Holland is beginning to show an uncomfortable resemblance to that of Midas at whose touch everything turned to gold. Instead of the urgently needed goods, more and more gold, not to mention $200,000,000 worth of credit paper, has been sent to Holland by her belligerent neighbors.

This is far more than she can employ, with the result that the gold stocks of the Netherlands bank are quadrupled since the outbreak of the war, amounting now to some $265,000,000. This means that the central bank's directly callable liabilities, in the form of banknotes and account balances, are backed by gold to the extent of 77 percent, which compares with only 17 percent in Germany.

But of what use are our big gold reserves, Hollanders are beginning to ask, "if our productive capacity is being more and more reduced, ever more businesses are being brought to entire or partial standstill for lack of raw materials or coal, workmen dismissed, the supply of foodstuffs cut off, and our colonies, one of the nation's mainstays, likewise pressed by the prevailing circumstances."

If he need further evidence that the world has turned upside down, the Hollanders may find it in the curious fact that his normally much coveted gold is declined with thanks in Sweden, whole gold exports to Spain, are impossible because of the obstacles in the way of shipment. The unpleasant result is that the Swedish exchange has risen. Holland's exports thither are too small to balance her imports from Sweden. Nothing would appear more logical than to pay in gold for the excess imports but the Swedish bank refuses to accept it.

From practically the commencement of the war the Swedish government has taken the standpoint that it wants goods paid for in goods, the population needing foodstuffs and other necessities rather than gold. Hollanders are beginning to keenly feel the strange limitation which has been placed on the powers of gold.

Holland's national debt, which stood at $444,000,000 before the war, has nearly doubled in the past three years, the added burden amounts to date to $326,000,000. It is expected to go on mounting so long as the war continues and an army of some quarter of a million has to be kept on a war footing as well as big sums spent on the provision of cheap food and other necessities for the people.

All in the Belt. An Englishman has perfected a belt-driven automobile, changes of speed being effected by moving the belt from one set of pulleys to another.

Success From Failure. We mount to heaven mostly on the ruins of our cherished schemes, finding our failures our successes.—A. Bronson Alcott.

A Sermon in Stone. O'Brien (the marble cutter).—"What a fool I was! If I hadn't overcharged Kelly's widow for his tombstone, she would never have married me for my money."—Town Topics.

Heat the Whole House at low cost and little trouble

HEAT every room in your house, all winter, day and night. Bring comfort and health to your family. Do away with all the dirt, trouble and nuisance of stoves. At moderate cost and little or no expense or difficulty for installing, you can enjoy the comfort and convenience of an

INTERNATIONAL Onepipe Heater

Send for catalog, or let our salesman call and explain.

Sheldon Hardware Co.

15. W. Milwaukee Street.

C. J. Smith, Mgr.

Doing our bit

Liberty Bonds

ACCEPTED AS CASH

Liberty Bonds, of either issue, will be accepted, at par and accrued interest, (just the same as cash), in connection with the purchase of any of our First Mortgage Securities, either in the form of Individual Mortgages or Farm Land Bonds.

GOLD-STABECK COMPANY

15. W. Milwaukee Street.

C. J. Smith, Mgr.

Bellemont Hats $3.00

The season's niftiest shapes.

All sizes and the new colors.

R.M. Bostwick & Son

Merchants of fine clothes.

Main Street at Number Sixteen South.

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

LEVY'S

GREAT MONEY SAVING

SUIT SALE

WOMEN'S SUITS

NOW PRICED AT

One-Third Off

These beautiful suits are now offered at a fraction of their real worth.

Good assortment of styles and colors and sizes.

Quite a number of them were sold today, in spite of the weather.

Don't delay—the values are unusual.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

LEVY'S

GREAT MONEY SAVING

SUIT SALE

WOMEN'S SUITS

NOW PRICED AT

One-Third Off

These beautiful suits are now offered at a fraction of their real worth.

Good assortment of styles and colors and sizes.

Quite a number of them were sold today, in spite of the weather.

Don't delay—the values are unusual.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

THE GOLDEN EAGLE

LEVY'S

GREAT MONEY SAVING

SUIT SALE

WOMEN'S SUITS

NOW PRICED AT

One-Third Off

These beautiful suits are now offered at a fraction of their real worth.

Good assortment of styles and colors and sizes.

Quite a number of them were sold today, in spite

Pyorrhoea

The health destroying gum disease. There are many methods of treatment and many opinions but I am more satisfied every day that my methods CURE this disease. My old patients come in and show me their mouths, NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH.

Don't risk your health by continuing with your present diseased condition of gums.

Dr. F. T. Richards

Janesville, Wis.
Office open Saturdays and Sunday evenings until 8:30.

IMPORTANT!

Liberty Loan

Those subscribers who have given their subscriptions for Liberty Bonds payable through this bank should call as soon as possible to arrange payments and receive their receipts.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Established 1855.
The bank with the "Efficient Service."
Open Saturday Evenings

WHY Should I buy a Liberty Bond? BECAUSE

I am an American Citizen. I am not a "slacker." I want to back up the boys behind the guns. Good business judgement tells me it is the best investment in the world. BUY TODAY. We will handle your subscription without charge.

Merchants & Savings Bank

Oldest Savings Bank in Rock County.

CHIROPRACTOR E. H. Danrow, D.C.

Show me your spine and I will tell you what and where your ailments are. EXAMINATION FREE. Office, 405 Jackson Block. Both phones 970. Residence phone, R. C., 527 Red. I have a complete spino-graphic X-Ray Laboratory.

F. W. MILLER

CHIROPRACTOR
409-410 Jackson Block
R. C. Phone 179 Black
Hours 9 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Lady Attendant
Your Spine Examined Free.
Bell Phone 1004.

Alice G. Devine

CHIROPRACTOR
308 Jackson Bldg.
Hours: 9 to 11; 2 to 5; 7 to 8.
R. C. 140
Bell, 121 W.

THE REASON.
Wife—Before we were married you said you'd lay down your life for me. Hubby—I know, but this flat is so tiny there's no place to lay anything down.

Licensed to Wed: Marriage licenses etc. been issued to the following: John J. Snyder, Harmony, and Mayme C. Stearns, Janesville; and Robert N. Jordan, Beloit, and Susan, Bregold, Beloit.

Postpone Meeting: On account of the Liberty loan drive of this week it was deemed wise to postpone the semi-annual meeting of the City Federation, scheduled for Thursday. Announcement of the date will be made next week. A special meeting of the board of directors will be held next Thursday morning at the rest room.

PLANS FOR THURSDAY NEARING COMPLETION

PARADE ARRANGED FOR EVENING WITH GREAT LAKES NAVAL BAND AS THE ATTRACTION.

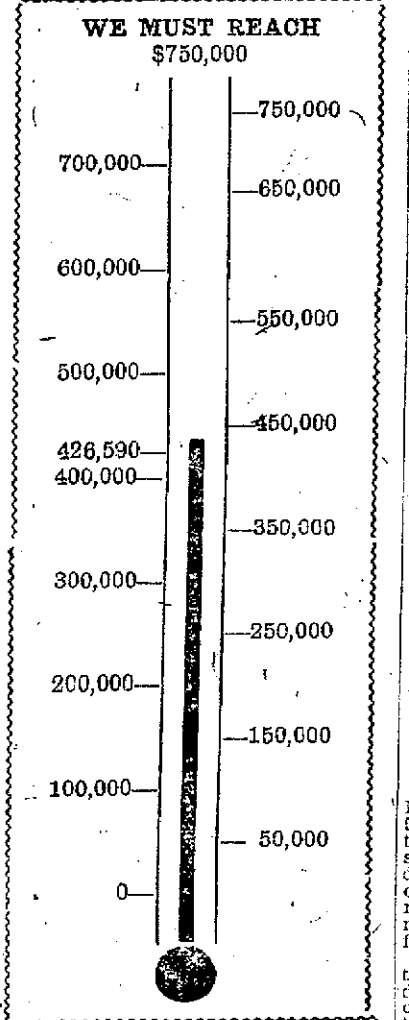

BOOSTER RUN TONIGHT

Weather Permitting Beloit Will Send a Delegation to This City This Evening to Boost Bonds.

As a result of the efforts on the part of the committees in charge, Janesville will hold a monster celebration on Thursday evening of this week in an effort to increase the subscriptions in the big drive in the second Liberty Loan campaign which will close on this Saturday. Plans for the event are now being formulated and the preliminary work has now been completed and the committee in charge will now bend their efforts towards the details of the affair.

The committee in charge of the work is composed of George M. McKey, F. L. Clemons and I. F. Wortendyke. These men are now hard at work for the demonstration which will include the monster parade on Thursday.

TOTAL SUBSCRIPTIONS TO DATE

Thursday lead by the Great Lakes Naval band of thirty-seven pieces which will come to the city on that evening.

The band will arrive here at five-ten after a stop in Milton Junction where a short program has been prepared. The band will be tendered a banquet at the Y. M. C. A. by the committee.

In the evening a parade will be held through the downtown streets in which all the organizations in the city will be represented. Although the definite plans have not been announced as to the personnel of the parade it is expected that it will include the organizations in the city which intend to buy in addition to the school children and the Boy Scouts of the city. In fact everyone in the city will be invited to take part in the parade which will prove the loyalty to the government and their willingness to aid them now that we are in the war and need the undivided support of each and every person.

The two high school voluntary military companies and the Boy Scouts will act as the special escort for the Great Lakes band. The parade will start at seven-thirty from the Y. M. C. A. Following the parade a mass meeting will be held at the Myers Theatre. Martin J. Gillen, of Racine, will be the speaker of the evening and will address the audience on the need of the subscriptions to the Liberty Bond issue.

have the money are content to sit back and let the other fellow do the work. The committee in charge of the drive is now making a list of the names of the subscribers to the Liberty Loan. The committee is now making a list of the names of the subscribers to the Liberty Loan. The committee is now making a list of the names of the subscribers to the Liberty Loan.

A letter addressed to the various committees in charge of the work in the various districts has been sent out by Allen U. Lovejoy in an effort to bring before the eyes of the men the necessity of everyone putting forth all their efforts. Following is the letter.

Dear Sir:

The following is not original, but seems to apply to our conditions here in Janesville.

I have tried to analyze this drive, this selling campaign, and the analysis brings to me the following conditions. You are confronted by two classes of purchasers. They are, loyal American citizens and slackers. Every one now knows to one of these two classes. We won't even discuss the first at this time except merely to say "bully for you." "Slackers" There's the tough one. There are several varieties of the type. The average slacker will not refuse to buy a bond or even more. This he will do without much urging. There is the danger. We must not permit anyone to shrink, by taking less than his share.

While on this subject I cannot refrain from paying my respects to this type of slacker, a picture: place it in your mind's eye. Here he is, safely at home, pursuing his usual calling or occupation, enjoying all of the comforts of life. He is well housed and warm. The soldier who is defending this country, this man's life, is far from home and kindred, tired, weary, worn and cold. The slacker won't let his chin shake to the thought of the soldier who is hungry but he won't feed him. The slacker will march in patriotic parades, but he is unwilling to buy bonds and equipment for the boys at the front, unwilling to furnish his share for defense of his country and its rights. The defender of his home and friends will be wounded. The slacker refuses even to furnish money to heal and to nurse him.

Men and women, isn't it possible if these thoughts could be driven home to those who have so far refused to realize and to accept their responsibility that the number of slackers could be materially diminished? For the good name of our city let us strive to eliminate him altogether.

Yours truly,
A. P. Lovejoy,
Chairman, Janesville District.

Janesville's total as compiled on Monday night shows a total of $426,590 or about a little less than two-thirds of the mark which we are endeavoring to reach. We still have some days in which to secure this sum. The committees will go to work with renewed energy so that Janesville will not be classed as a slacker when the final report is turned in.

M. G. Jeffris, county chairman, went to Milwaukee today where he will address the gathering of the Milwaukee county bondholders on Thursday evening. Over five hundred workers from that county will be present to hear him deliver his message.

GREAT LAKES BAND AT MILTON JUNCTION

Mass Meeting Will Be Held at Depot in Milton Junction on Thursday Afternoon Following Arrival of Band.

Arrangements have been completed for the holding of a mass meeting at the depot in Milton Junction on Thursday afternoon in the efforts being made to increase the amount subscribed to the second Liberty Loan in that district. The Great Lakes Naval band will arrive in Milton Junction at 3:08 and will remain there until 4:50 when they will take the train for Janesville.

As soon as the band arrives they will be followed by an address by W. H. Dougherty of this city. A large crowd of people from Milton, Milton Junction and vicinity are expected to be on hand.

GOVERNMENT'S CALL FOR TYPISTS AND STENOGRAPHERS UNHEEDED SAYS POSTMASTER

The call of the government for ten thousand stenographers and typists to fill the vacancies in the government offices caused by the war has been largely unheeded in Janesville. The volume of work now handled by the government, seems to have met with but very little response in Janesville. These positions pay a salary from $800 per year upwards.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Dora De Lisle and Mrs. Ben Neitum visited friends at Rockford and Camp Grant last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Levy of Third street have for their guests this week their sister, Mrs. Rice and daughter Jane of Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Parker who have been spending several days in Rockford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Corneau, have returned.

Miss Anna and Nellie Maloy of Hingwood street spent the first of the week at Camp Grant, where they were the guests of their nephew, Richard Dunphy.

Joseph A. Hannon of Milton was a Sunday visitor with friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith of Albion are the recent guests of Janesville friends.

David Smith of Milton transacted business in this city yesterday.

William Fleming of Madison spent the week on Monday in Janesville on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kliefoth are home from an over Sunday visit with friends in Beloit.

Robert Cassan of Ft. Atkinson spent the day in this city yesterday.

J. E. Parsons of Darlington is calling on business friends in town today.

Mrs. J. M. Sailor of Portland, Mich., who was a former resident of this city is visiting at the home of her son, John, at 230 North Pearl street.

Mrs. Sailor expects to spend about two weeks in town.

Miss Katherine Connors of South Jackson street returned from a visit with friends in Three Rivers, Mich., where she spent a couple of weeks.

Miss M. McCoy of Jackson street spent the week with friends in Madison. She returned on Monday.

Miss Gertrude Warren of Cornelia street is home. She has been spending the week with friends in Beloit.

T. F. Welsh of Jackson street has gone east on a business trip. He has spent the past two weeks in New York City and is expected home the last of the week.

Announcement of the arrival of Frederick James Bales returned from the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Edna Bailey of Beloit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott are spending a few days at the home of her parents on Glen street.

Out-of-Town Visitors.

Paul Grubb of Edgerton was in the city today transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Scott are spending a few days at the home of her parents on Glen street.

REGULAR MEETING OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

Appoint Committee to Take Charge of Demonstration—Sixty Dealers and Salesmen of Ford Motor Company Gather Together for Banquet on Monday Evening.

Plans for the demonstration to be held in this city on Thursday evening to aid in the Liberty Loan drive were discussed at the meeting of the Commercial club yesterday and it was decided to appoint George M. McKey, F. L. Clemons and I. F. Wortendyke to take charge of the work and make the affair a success.

Announcement was also received of the fact that the Wisconsin Dairy-men's association will hold their state convention in Janesville on November 20 to 22. Several speakers of national reputation are listed on the program. Plans are being made for the caring of the large number who will be in attendance.

Matters pertaining to the war community survey fund, which Janesville has been asked to support, were laid over until next week until the work of raising funds for the Liberty Loan has been completed. This service contemplates the raising of the money to better the conditions of the territory surrounding the camps of our army and navy, and is separate from the activities of the M. C. A. association in the city.

Announcement of the annual meeting of the Red Cross for Friday at the city hall was also made. At that time a successor president, H. E. Lovejoy will be named. President George S. Parker of the Commercial club spoke of Mr. Lovejoy's splendid work and expressed the hope that the work would continue in the same way.

OBITUARY.

Bernard Dugan.
The funeral of Mr. Bernard Dugan was held this morning at nine o'clock from the St. Patrick's church. Dean E. E. Reilly celebrated High Mass and also delivered the sermon. Many guests were present. The deceased was buried in the Catholic cemetery.

Joseph Fraunfelder.
The nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Fraunfelder, Joseph, passed away this morning at nine o'clock at the home of his parents, 422 North Pearl street. He had been sick for the last seven months and small hope had been held for his recovery. All that loving care and willing hands could do was done, but death called this morning and departed with his spirit to the great beyond, here all will meet.

Besides his father and mother he is survived by three brothers, Fred, Edward and John, and one sister, Helen, who now miss their cheerful little brother. The notice of the funeral will be given later.

Walter Myers.
Walter R. Myers, who died suddenly at the home of his mother, Mrs. C. Stuart, on Sunday evening, will be buried tomorrow from the home of his sister, at the head of Milwaukee street on East street. The funeral service will be held at 10 o'clock and will be conducted by the local lodge of Elks. Mr. Myers as a member of the Port Angelus, Washington, lodge. He will be interred in the Oak Hill cemetery.

H. F. East.
Word was received today from Indianapolis of the death of H. F. East who died of pneumonia. Mr. East was the husband of Mrs. Mary Burke East, who is well known in Janesville, and her many friends extend their sympathy in her bereavement.

Gilbert Hodge.
Gilbert Hodge of Monroe, died suddenly at his home in that city, Monday evening. Mr. Hodge was president of the Citizens' bank and for many years one of Green county's prominent business men. Mrs. E. J. Manning of North High street in this city, is his widow and was with him when he passed away.

The knitting corps of the Janesville Machine Company met at the home of Miss Pamela Gately Monday evening. The girls are knitting for the Red Cross society and are progressing nicely.

Mrs. Anna Mathews, of 715 Pleasant street, received a message from her nephew in Milwaukee, Harold Tank, that he had passed the examination to be admitted to the United States navy and that he would leave today for the east to go into training.

Lachrymose.
There are thousands of children at this moment who are in crying need. Then there are dozens in every neighborhood who seem to be in crying want. There's a difference, you know.—Indianapolis Star.

What a Man Is.
What a man is lies as certainly upon his conscience as in his heart, though none of his acquaintances may be able to read it. The very intercourse with him may have rendered it more difficult.—George MacDonald.

Want to rent a house or flat? Look through the Classified lists and you may find what you want.

Have You Tried Eggine?

Pure and Wholesome.
EGG SUBSTITUTE
for
COOKING AND BAKING
Use 10c package as 12 eggs.

Every grocer in the city now has Eggine.

Try a 10c package. If it is not perfectly satisfactory return it to your grocer who will cheerfully refund your money.

HANLEY BROS.

Wholesale Commission Merchants.
E. J. Murphy, Mgr.

$10,000 of the New Government Bonds have been received by this bank and we will deliver them to fully paid subscribers as long as they last.

Rock County National Bank

COMPANY ENTERTAINS FOR THEIR SALESMEN

Sixty Dealers and Salesmen of the Ford Motor Company Gather Together for Banquet on Monday Evening.

Sixty dealers and salesmen of the Ford Motor company in southern Wisconsin were entertained Monday evening at a banquet at the Myers hotel at the expense of the Ford company. A. W. Gilpin, Milwaukee branch manager, spoke to the salesmen on matters relative to the sale of Ford cars and the effect of the war on the automobile business. A. B. Pease, assistant manager, was also on the program.

During the evening moving pictures of the new tractors in action on one of Mr. Ford's farms were shown. These tractors will soon be sent to the allies for use there.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kindness extended to us during our late bereavement.

Mr. G. J. Hill and Family,
Mrs. W. H. Minnick and Family.

Crystal Camp No. 132, R. N. A., will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 sharp. All officers are requested to be present to drill for initiation. By order of the Oracle, Alice E. Mason, Recorder.

THURSDAY EVENING DANCE AT THE ARMORY

Benefit for 16th Separate Company. Music by Jazz Orchestra.

TICKETS 50c. LADIES FREE.

Fresh Beef Liver lb 18c

Pickled Pigs Feet lb. 12 1/2 c

Eggine, equal to a dozen eggs, guaranteed, try it, pkg. .10c
Asparagus spears, can .18c
Asparagus tips, can .25c
Home made mince meat, lb. 25c
None Such mince meat, package .12 1/2 c
Purple top turnips and carrots, lb. .10c
Malaga grapes, lb. .10c
Cranberries, lb. .15c

Roesling Bros.

Groceries and Meats
SEVEN PHONES
All 128.

Janesville MEAT HOUSE

Cash Prices Delivered for Wednesday

Beef Tongue, lb. .20c
Boneless Rump Corn Beef at .18c
Porter House Steak .20c
Sirloin Steak .20c
Round Steak .20c
Porter House Roast .19c
Sirloin Roast .19c
Round Roast .19c
Pot Roast .15c
Best Pot Roast .18c
Rib Roast .15c
Home Made Lard .25c
Lard Compound .22c
Lincoln Oleo .23c

Buy your meat at this market and save the difference you will have to pay elsewhere and buy Liberty Bonds.

A. G. Metzinger

—PHONES—
New, 56. Old, 436.

FAIR STORE

Special Sale of Rubbers and Overshoes

Children's Storm Rubbers, sizes 6 to 10 1/2, at 50c.
Girls' Storm Rubbers, 11 to 2, at 65c.
Women's Storm Rubbers 85c.
Women's Heel-less Rubbers 75c.
Boys' Rolled Edge Rubbers, 11 to 2, at 85c; 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 at 90c.
Boys' Rubbers for English style shoes at $1.00.
Men's Rolled Edge Rubbers at $1.10.
Children's 1 buckle Overshoes, 6 to 10 1/2, at 95c.
Girls' 1-buckle Overshoes, at $1.25.
Women's 1-buckle Overshoes $1.25 to 2, at 95c.
Boys' 1-buckle Overshoes, 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 at $1.25.
Men's 1-buckle Overshoes, at $1.45 and $1.95.
Men's All Rubber Overshoes at $2.45.
Men's Rubbers with leather tops at $2.95.
Men's Felt Boots and Rubbers $2.95.
Men's Black Rubber Boots at $3.95.
Men's Red Rubber Boots at $3.95.
Boys' at $2.95.

SHOES
Girls' Button Shoes in gun metal or vicil kid, at $1.95 and $2.45.
Girls' English style lace shoes, some with leather soles, others with white rubber soles and heels; sizes 12 1/2 to 2, at $2.95.
Boys' School Shoes in button or lace style, at 9 to 13, at $1.95; 1 to 6 1/2 at $2.45.
Boys' Black Lace Shoes with white soles and heels, at $3.60.
Dark Brown Shoes, at $3.95.
Young Women's Low Heeled Black Lace Shoes with black molin soles and rubber heels, 2 1/2 to 6, at $3.50.
Young Women's Dark Brown and Black Lace Shoes with black molin soles and rubber heels, at $4.45 and $4.95.
Women's High Tops Vicil and Dull Kid Lace Shoes with black cloth tops, at $3.50.
Women's All Leather High Top Black Vicil Kid Shoes, lace style, at $4.45.
Women's Dark Brown, Black with Gray Tops, Brown with Lighter Tops, All Leather, High Cut Lace Shoes, at $4.95.

STAR MEAT MARKET

22 N. Main St.
—PHONES—
Bell, 1169. Rock Co. 517.

CASH PRICES ON EXTRA GOOD QUALITY BEEF

Delivered to any part of the city.

Sirloin Steak .22c
Short Steak .22c
Round Steak .22c
Eib Roast .18c
Pot Roast .17c
Short Ribs .15c
Hamburg Steak .20c
Pork Loin Roast .30c
Corn Beef .20c
Pure Open Kettle Rendered Lard .30c
First Class Service and Honest Weights.
EDWARD SIMMONS

Trupakt Oysters

Fancy Bluepoints, 20c and 35c pkgs.
Jones' Dairy Farm Sausage 40c.
Honey Dew Melons 25c to 35c.
Large Fresh Cocoanuts.
White and Red Grapes 10c lb.
New Hickory Nuts.
New Brazil Nuts.
New Jumbo Blamark Dill Pickles 20c doz.
Fancy Cranberries, 15c lb.
Old Dutch and Boston Coffee.
Roseleaf Jap Tea.

WINSLOW'S Cash Grocery

Eggine, takes the place of eggs, pkg. .10c
Fresh White Bread .8c
2 for .15c
6 lbs. Yellow Onions .25c
4 lbs. Jonathan Apples .25c
Large Pumpkin, each .20c
Jello, all flavors, pkg. .8c
Calumet Baking Powder 20c
2 pkgs. Seeded Raisins .25c

E. R. WINSLOW

PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY.
24 N. Main.
Old phone 504.
Rock Co. Phone 372.

SOLDIERS IN FRANCE
ENJOY PARIS VISITS

Paris, Sept. 4.—(Correspondence.)—One place which many American soldiers visit in Paris is the British "Brighton Corner," officially known as the "Foyer du Soldat Anglais." It is conducted by a group of English and American women as a place where Canadian, Australian and New Zealand soldiers who cannot go home for their tea days, leave may find a well come. It has all the facilities of a well up-to-date club, with perhaps a little more of the air of "home" than an ordinary club. Tea is served every afternoon at all corners by the wives of British officers, and there is every afternoon and evening a program of music and entertainment.

"My visit has given me much pleasure," wrote the Prince of Wales in the "Visitors' book." "Ditto," wrote the Duke of Connaught. On the occasion of the Duke of Connaught's visit the cheers of the Canadian soldiers were so lusty as to offend the ears of some of the residents of a fashionable hotel in the Place Vendôme nearby. They filed a complaint with the police, but the police replied they are authorized to make as much noise as they please. The British soldiers were not told to make less noise when they blew up the mounds at Messines.

Worth While Quotation.
He surely is most in want of another's patience who has none of his own.—Lavater.

Sport Snap Shots
MORRIS MILLER

If Jack Ness had behaved right while with the White Sox, he might be some few nickels ahead of the game right now. His share of the White Sox end would have been a neat sum and most likely he doesn't care to think about it now.

A large colored batter named Kid Norfolk is causing quite a little worry in eastern fistic circles. He has shown so much speed and punch on several occasions that it is getting to be a hard matter to match him. Norfolk is a light heavyweight and is willing to take on any white man anywhere near his weight. Quite a number of the best have declined after the invitation. Recently the colored Kid surprised one and all by outclassing Billy Miske most all the way in twelve rounds. He has too much speed for Miske and too much punch.

Hardly a football team in the western conference this fall that will not suffer considerably through the loss of last season's stars who are now serving their Uncle Sam, but most of the schools are determined to go ahead and make the best possible showing. This is the spirit that football produces and it's the best argument why the game should certainly be continued.

The origin of baseball in Cuba is disputed. Some say that it first appeared there when the boys in the Spanish-American war first played it for their own diversion. Since 1898 the Cubans have developed baseball remarkably and they have turned out some star players. But there are others who point out that baseball has been popular in Cuba since 1884 when Cubans returning from American colleges first showed their friends at home how the game was played. This seems likely and more since in 1884 the Cubans already had a fast little league. At any rate it is certain that the game is as much a national pastime in Cuba as it is in the States.

Al Jolson, the comedian, seems to be the rabid type of fan. He called off a week's engagement at a loss of something like one thousand bones a day in order to take in all of the world's series. Then too he plunged heavily on the Giants in the first two games in Chicago as well as on the Giants to take the series. As a result of it all he feels that he has had enough of baseball till next summer.

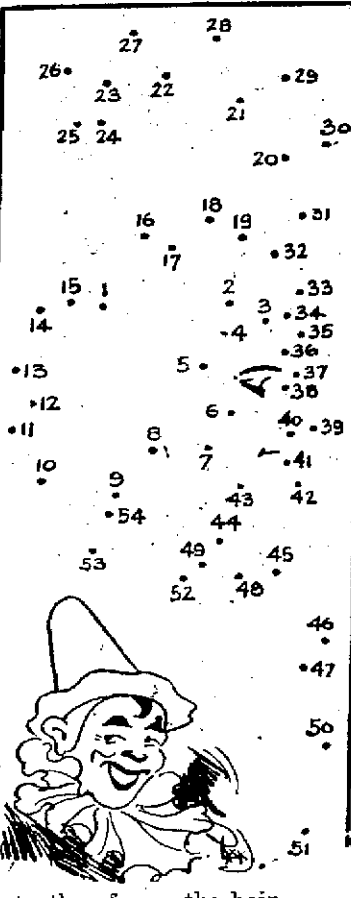

The best fielding record of the past season from all dope at hand was made by the Lincoln team of the Western league which went fifty-seven innings in August without making a single error. And included in this was a twenty-one-inning game which Lincoln won as indeed they deserved to do.

Fred Anderson, Giant pitcher, put in a claim for exemption from the army draft on some grounds or other and the claim was denied. Now Anderson has taken his claim right up to Woody Wilson. If Anderson is obliged to serve in the army it will likely be in the dental corps. Fred is a real dentist by trade and took up pitching to improve his health.

Rube Marquard and Jack Myers assembled a team of various big leaguers and started out on a barnstorming tour soon after the close of the season, but the money didn't exactly roll in and so the abandoned ball players and it's the best argument why the game should certainly be continued.

Bonehead plays are always diverting and seldom fail to give a game an added zest. Fans like to roar and howl away and there's nothing like a no-headed play to rouse their jeers. Few players aspire to distinction in this respect, however, and Heinie Zim probably didn't do it on purpose.

Not Out of Date.
Says an old proverb: Some wives can throw more out the back door with a teaspoon than their husbands can bring in with a scoop shovel at the front door.

One to three from the hair, Trace and see who is there. Draw from one to two and so on to the end.

Gazette classified ads bring quick results.

News Notes from Movieland

BY DAISY DEAN

Dorothy Dalton thinks she has built up a reputation that she doesn't deserve. And so "I'm not going to play vampire parts any more," she declared recently. Her sad experience in "Ten of Diamonds" may have had something to do with her decision. However that may be, Dorothy declares there are too many nice women and girls in the world to impersonate to make it attractive for her to spend her time getting "folks down on me" doing something entirely "foreign to me."

MANY MOVIE STARS ARE CONVENT BRED

Why doesn't the man who started the world to wondering about so many other things do a little worrying about the photoplayers who had their childhood training in convents. Alla Nazimova is one of them. Within the walls of a Russian convent she went to morning mass, learned Bible history, was taught by the sisters to trace delicate patterns in fillet, bent her head over history and Latin books and took her airings two by two, with her school mates inside the high gray walls of the great school at Petrograd. Marguerite Clark is another. She was born in a convent and was sent to the Ursuline convent at an early age. The walls were stone, muffled with ivy. A photoplay? Marguerite didn't know what one was. Dorothy Dalton is another convent bred star. She was schooled in the Sacred Heart academy, but not in the art of adjusting a rose a la Carmen in her hair. Edna Flugrath went to convent school in New Rochelle and Ethel Clayton was taught by the sisters.

Pranceella Billington heard her musical name from the role of the Sacred Heart convent in Los Angeles. Doris Mitchell and Mildred Havens went there, too. Gloria Fonda was taught by the nuns at Forest Ridge.

Dorothy Dalton as she appears in one of her vampire roles.

Eugene Besserer went to a convent in Canada; Mary Charlson in Los Angeles; Beatrice Burman in Texas; Helen Greene in Georgetown; Marion Dentler at St. Mary's; Louise Dupre, Kathryn Osterman, Maud Hill, Alice Hollister, Jackie Saunderson, Beatrice Van, Dorothy Rogers, Marin Sals—galaxies of stars, were reared in the atmosphere of simplicity and solemnity of convent life. Elsie Ferguson recently experienced her most strenuous work in motion pictures since deserting the stage when she took an active part in a street fight in New York's ghetto for her new film, "The Rise of Jennie Cushing." The scene called for Miss Ferguson's rescue of a street cat which was being tortured by a gang of urchins. She attacked the crowd of young ruffians and set them all to rout. The affair was so realistic that Miss Ferguson was compelled to cease activities for the day.

Get rid of surplus articles about the house by using Gazette Classified ads.

Always a Way.
"There is always a way of doing every worth-while thing."
Classified ads are money makers.

Apollo

Matinee daily at 2:30.
Evening, 7:30 and 9.

TONIGHT

Wm. Fox Presents

Theda Bara

—IN—

"Her Greatest Love"

Founded on Ouida's
"Moths"

ALL SEATS, 10c.

WEDNESDAY OFFERING

Bryant Washburn

—AND—

Virginia Valli

—IN—

"THE FIBBERS"

Extra good comedy.

Also the Hearst-Pathe News
—World events of the present time in picture form.

ALL SEATS, 10c.

Women's and Misses' Wool Suits at One-Fourth Off. Suit Section, Main Floor

CARPETS
RUGS
LINOLEUMS
Second Floor

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.
JANESVILLE : : WISCONSIN

CURTAINS
DRAPERIES
BEDDING
Second Floor

THIS is the season of the year to make the indoors attractive. A new Rug, maybe, is just what is needed, in the parlor, living room, dining room or bed room. We have them, suitable for every purpose, and are just now offering the most desirable floor coverings in an extensive variety of colorings, designs and qualities at a very attractive price, including a shipment of Wilton, Velvet and Brussels Rugs purchased at special concessions and now offered at correspondingly low prices.

Rugs

and are just now offering the most desirable floor coverings in an extensive variety of colorings, designs and qualities at a very attractive price, including a shipment of Wilton, Velvet and Brussels Rugs purchased at special concessions and now offered at correspondingly low prices.

"Carry Your Small Parcels With You"

Patriotic economy means the elimination of waste and extravagance—the conservation of our food products, our natural wealth, our Labor. It means putting more efficiency in whatever we do, so that we and others may accomplish the utmost. There is an opportunity for shoppers in the store to "do their bit" for national service by carrying home all small parcels. It costs the store money to deliver your purchase. It takes the time of clerks and of men on the delivery autos. It is a service which this store is willing to render, but one which at this time you should relieve them of. Do your "bit". Take small parcels with you.

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS RUGS

of new construction, closely woven, medallion and allover patterns; 9x12 and 11 1/4 x 12 ft. sizes only, $14.75 AND $19.50 at.....

Wilton Velvet Rugs, 9x12 Size, at $29.50

A special purchase of good durable rugs, all seamless, Oriental designs and colors. These rugs are worth $35.00. 9x12 size, special at $29.50

Wilton Velvet Rugs, a $32.50 Value at Only $26.50

5 1/4 x 10 1/4 feet size, heavy quality, splendid assortment of choice patterns to choose from; $32.50 value, special. $26.50

9x12 Seamless Brussels Rug Only $19.50

Seamless Brussels Rugs, 9x12 size, the best quality Seamless Tapestry Brussels Rug, made of fine worsted yarns, excellent variety of designs, the $25.00 kind; for this week at $19.95

Axminster Rugs

Your choice of fine Axminster Rugs, noted for durability, high grade Persian and Conventional designs. Special this week. 27x54 INCH, $2.85 AT.....

36x72 INCH $4.95 AT.....

Royal Wilton and Wilton Velvet Rugs

We shall offer for this week, your choice of a selection of high grade Wilton and Wilton Velvet Rugs, mostly in rich allover patterns, rugs that are of well known merit, but are to be discontinued next season. 9x12 size only. Special at $39.50

BODY BRUSSELS RUGS

The best quality Whittall Body Brussels Rugs, they are recognized throughout the trade for their superior designs, texture and durability. An immense assortment of choice patterns at the low price of 9x12 feet $36.50 size at.....

IMPORTED RAG RUGS

We have just received a large shipment of Rag Rugs from Japan; the designs and colors are the most beautiful we have ever shown; plain and two-tone centers with handsome landscapes and floral borders.

24x48 INCH $1.50 AT..... 30x60 INCH $2.50 AT.....

36x72 INCH $3.25 AT.....

NEPONSET LINOLEUM

This famous new process floor covering in many new tile and hardwood patterns, makes an ideal inexpensive floor covering for Kitchen, Dining Room, or Bed Rooms, per square yard. 55c

LINOLEUM LACQUER

Don't forget to give your linoleum a coat of Linoleum Lacquer, it preserves the patterns and makes old linoleum like new; easily applied and dries over night.

PINT CANS 45c AT..... QUART CANS 85c AT.....

MAJESTIC

ALWAYS 10c WHY PAY MORE?

TODAY —AND— WEDNESDAY
Triangle Film Corp. Presents

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

In the story of a tenderfoot who went West a Lamb--and came back a Lion.

"THE LAMB"

The Most Spectacular Fairbanks Picture Ever Produced

CHILDREN'S SPECIAL 5c MATINEE AT 4:15 TOMORROW.

BEVERLY

THEATRE BEAUTIFUL

SPECIAL ATTRACTION
Today and Tomorrow

Paramount Co. Offers

MARY PICKFORD

In Her Latest and Best Production

"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm"

From Kate Douglas Wiggin's famous novel

—AND—
"BURTON HOLMES TRAVEL PICTURES"

Matinee at 2:30. All Seats 10c.
Night 7:30 and 9. All Seats 15c.

THURSDAY & FRIDAY
"THE CRISIS"

(10 Acts)

Winston Churchill's Famous Novel

2—Complete Shows Daily—2

Matinee at 2:30. All Seats 20c.
Night, Promptly at 8. All Seats, 25c.
Secure Reserved Seats Now.

PETEY DINK—PETEY FIGURED IT OUT WITH ONE LOOK.

The Bonthead Contest.

My entry for the bonthead championship is the young celt who holds the drug store phone for 20 minutes, yelling sweet nothings into the ear of his lady love, while 17 regular men are waiting to use the instrument.—New York Evening Mail.

Dandruff Soon

Ruins The Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon, apply it at night when the hair is clean and moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

Advertisement.

Farmer Near Jansville Has Terrible Experience

"I don't think anybody ever suffered more pain than I have." Twice I was operated for gall stones and a third operation was advised. A friend of mine wrote me how he was cured by taking May's Wonderful Remedy. I took a bottle on his advice with good results and have also taken the full course. My pains are all gone and I feel I am permanently cured. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. P. Baker, Advertisement.

Outdoor Workers

are subject to exposure to all kinds of weather, and strenuous outdoor work brings them many troubles. You can't afford to let your health suffer. Use Sloan's Liniment. Clean and convenient, no need to rub, no stains, no clumsy plasters and your pain disappears.

Sprains, strains, rheumatic aches and stiff joints are all relieved by the application of Sloan's Liniment.

Get the best bottles at all drug stores, 25c, 50c, $1.00.

Sloan's Liniment

J. P. Baker, Advertisement.

Easy to Make This

Pine Cough Remedy

Thousands of families swear by its prompt results. Inexpensive, and saves about $2.

You know that pine is used in nearly all these ailments, and remedies using it are the most effective. You can make it yourself in five minutes.

To make the best pine cough remedy that money can buy, put 2 1/2 ounces of Piney oil (not wintergreen) in a pint bottle, and fill with four-made sugar syrup. This gives you a full pint—more than you can buy ready-made for $2.50. It is pure, good and very pleasant—children take it eagerly.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. The cough may be dry, hoarse and tight, or may be persistently loose from the formation of phlegm. The cure is the same—Inflamed membranes—and this Piney and Syrup combination will stop it—usually in 24 hours or less. Sore throat, whooping cough, hoarseness, or any ordinary throat ailment.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is famous the world over for its prompt results.

Beware of substitutes. Ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute relief, or money promptly refunded.

The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Beyond the Frontier

by RANDALL PARRISH

A Romance of Early Days in the Middle West

Author of "Keith of the Border," "My Lady of Doubt," "The Maid of the Forest," etc.

Copyright, A. C. McClure & Co.

"I see," commented Barbeau shrewdly. "Such marriage would place the property in their control by law. Had Cassion sought marriage previously?"

His eyes were upon me as he asked the question, and I answered him frankly.

"He visited often at the home of my uncle, Hugo Chevet, and, while he never spoke to me directly of marriage, I was told he desired me for his wife, and at the palace he so presented me to Monsieur la Barre."

"On pledge of Chevet, no doubt, your uncle knew of your fortune."

"No," he supposed me penniless; he thought it a great honor done me by the favorite of the governor's. 'Twas my belief he expected some reward for persuading me to accept the offer."

"And this Chevet—what became of him?"

"He accompanied us on the journey, also upon order of Monsieur la Barre, who, no doubt, thought he would be safer in the wilderness than in Quebec. He was murdered at St. Ignace."

"Murdered?"

"Ay, struck down from behind with a knife. No one knows who did it, but Cassion has charged the crime against Monsieur d'Artigny, and circumstances are such he will find it difficult to prove his innocence."

The soldier stood silent, evidently reflecting in his mind all that had been told him, his eyes narrowed into slits as he gazed thoughtfully at us both.

"Bah!" he exclaimed at last, "the middle is not so hard to read, although, no doubt, the trick has been well played. I know Governor la Barre, and this Francois Cassion, for I have served under both, while Monsieur la Chesnaye was my captain and friend. May I tell you what, in my judgment, seems best for you to do?"

I glanced at D'Artigny, and his eyes gave me courage.

"Monsieur, you are a French soldier," I answered, "an educated man, also, and my father's friend. I will listen gladly."

His eyes smiled, and he swept the earth with his cap.

"Then my plan is this—leave Monsieur Cassion to go his way, and let me be your guide southward. I know the trails, and the journey is not difficult. M. de la Durantaye is camped at the portage of the Des Plaines, having but a handful of men, to be sure, yet he is a gallant officer, and no enemy to La Salle, although he serves the governor. He will see justice done, and give you both safe conveyance to Fort St. Louis, where De Tonty knows how to protect his officers. Faith! I would like to see Francois Cassion try to browbeat that one-armed Italian—'twould be one time he would meet his match."

D'Artigny laughed.

"Ay, you are right there, my friend. I have felt the iron hook, and witnessed how he wins his way with white and red. Yet he is no longer in command at Fort St. Louis; I bring him orders now from Sieur de la Salle bidding him not to interfere with the governor's lieutenants. 'Tis the Chevalier de Bauguis with whom we must reckon."

"True, he has control, and men enough, with Cassion's party, to enforce his order. And he is a hot-head, conceited, and holding himself a bit better than others, because he bears commission in the King's Dragons. 'Tis said that he and De Tonty have had many a stiff quarrel since he came; but he dare not go too far. There are good men there ready to draw sword if he ever comes to blows—De Tonty, Boileau, L'Esperance, De Marle, and the Algonquins camped on the plain below. They would be fierce if the Italian spoke the word; while I doubt not M. de la Durantaye would throw his influence on the side of mercy; he has small love for the captain of dragons."

I spoke quickly, and before D'Artigny could voice decision.

"We will accept your guidance, monsieur. It is the best choice, and now the only one, for the time is past when we can expect the return of the canoes. Can we not at once begin the journey?"

It was an hour later, after we had eaten, that we left the bluff, and turned westward into the great woods. Barbeau led the way, moving along the bank of a small stream, and I followed, with D'Artigny close behind. As we had nothing to carry, except the soldier's rifle and blanket, we made rapid progress, and in less than half an hour we came to the Indian trail, which led southward from Green Bay to the headwaters of the Des Plaines.

It was late in the afternoon of the second day when we arrived at the forks of the Chicago river. There was a drizzle of rain in the air, and never saw I a more desolate spot; a bare, dreary plain, and away to the eastward a glimpse of the lake.

A hut of logs, a mere shack scarcely fit for shelter, stood on a slight eminence, giving wide view in every direction, but it was unoccupied, the door ajar. Barbeau, in advance, stared at it in surprise, gave utterance to an oath, and ran forward to peer within. Close behind him, I caught a glimpse of the interior, my own heart heavy with disappointment.

If this miserable place had been the headquarters of M. de la Durantaye, evidently it was so no longer. Not a vestige of occupancy remained. A rotten blanket on the floor, and a broken bench in one corner. Rude benches lined two walls, and a table hewed from a log stood in the center of the dirt floor. On this was a paper pinned to the wood by a broken knife-blade. Barbeau grasped it, and read the writing, handing it back to me. It was a scrap of a few words, yet told the whole story.

"Francis Cassion, under commission of Governor la Barre, arrived with party of soldiers and Indians. At his orders we accompany the force to Fort St. Louis."

"DE LA DURANTAYE."

"Perhaps it is as well," commented D'Artigny lightly. "At least as far as my good health goes; but 'tis like to make a hard journey for you, madame."

"Is it far yet until we attain the fort?"

"A matter of twenty-five leagues; of no moment had we a boat in which to float downstream, but the trail, as I remember, is rough."

"Perchance there may be a boat," interrupted Barbeau. "There was the wreck of an Indian canoe a mile below here on the Des Plaines, not so damaged as to be beyond repair, and here is a hatchet which we will find about this great, lonely rock, on which they had established a home. But the end was not yet. Just below the confluence of the rivers there was a village of the Tamarons, and the prow of our canoe touched the bank, while D'Artigny stepped ashore amid a tangle of low-growing bushes, that he might have speech with some of the warriors, and thus learn conditions at the fort. With his foot on the bank, he turned laughing, and held out his hand to me.

"Come, madame," he said, pleasantly, "you have never seen a village of our western tribes; it will interest you."

I joined him gladly, my limbs feeling awkward under me, from long crouching in the boat, yet the climb was not difficult, and he held back the bushes to give me easy passage. Beyond the fringe of brush there was an open space, but as we reached this, both paused, stricken dumb by horror at the sight which met our view. The ground before us was strewn with dead, and mutilated bodies, and was black with ashes where the teepees had been burned, and their contents scattered broadcast.

Never before had I seen such view of devastation, of relentless, savage cruelty, and I gave utterance to a sudden sob, and shrunk back against D'Artigny's arm, hiding my eyes with my hand. He stood and stared, motionless, breathing heavily, unconsciously gripping my arm.

"Mon Dieu!" he burst forth, at last.

useful!" He stooped and picked it up from under the bench. "One thing is certain—its useless to remain here; they have left the place as bare as a desert. 'Tis my choice that we make the Des Plaines before dark."

The Des Plaines was a narrow stream, flowing quietly through prairie land, although bordered along its shores by a thin fringe of trees. We moved down along its eastern bank for perhaps a half league, when we came to the edge of a swamp, and made camp. D'Artigny built a fire, and prepared my tent of boughs, while Barbeau waded out around a point in search of the wrecked canoe. He came back just at dusk towing it behind him through the shallow water, and the two men managed to drag it far enough up the bank to enable the water to drain out. Later, aided by a flaming torch, we looked it over, and decided the canoe could be made to float again. It required two days' work, however, before we ventured to trust ourselves to its safety.

But the dawn of the third day saw us afloat on the sluggish current, the two men plying improvised paddles to increase our speed, while I busied myself in keeping the frail craft free from water by constant use of a tin-cup.

Both men believed there was peace in the valley, except for the jealousy between the white factions at Fort St. Louis, and that the various Algonquin tribes were living quietly in their villages under protection of the Rock. D'Artigny described what a wonderful sight it was, looking down from the high hillsides to the broad meadows below, covered with teepees, and alive with peaceful Indians. He named the tribes which had gathered there for protection, trusting in La Salle, and believing De Tonty their friend—Illini, Shawnees, Abenakis, Miami, Mohegans—at one time reaching a total of twenty thousand souls.

Owing to the leaking of our canoe, and many difficulties experienced, we were three days in reaching the spot where the Illinois and the Fox rivers joined their waters, and swept forward in one broad stream. The time of our arrival at this spot was early in the afternoon, and, as D'Artigny said, Fort St. Louis was situated scarce ten miles below, our long journey seemed nearly ended. We anticipated reaching there before night, and, in spite of my fear of the reception awaiting us, my heart was light with hope and expectation.

I was but a girl in years, excitement was still to me a delight, and I had listened to so many tales, romantic, wonderful, of this wilderness fortress, perched upon a rock, that my vivid imagination had weaved about it an atmosphere of marvel. The beauty of the view from its hillside, the vast concourse of Indians encamped on the plains below, and those men guarding its safety—the faithful comrades of La Salle in explorations of the unknown, De Tonty, Boileau, and all the others, had long since become to my mind the incarnation of romantic adventure. Wilderness born, I could comprehend and appreciate their toils and dangers, and my dreams centered about this great, lonely rock, on which they had established a home. But the end was not yet. Just below the confluence of the rivers there was a village of the Tamarons, and the prow of our canoe touched the bank, while D'Artigny stepped ashore amid a tangle of low-growing bushes, that he might have speech with some of the warriors, and thus learn conditions at the fort. With his foot on the bank, he turned laughing, and held out his hand to me.

"Come, madame," he said, pleasantly, "you have never seen a village of our western tribes; it will interest you."

I joined him gladly, my limbs feeling awkward under me, from long crouching in the boat, yet the climb was not difficult, and he held back the bushes to give me easy passage. Beyond the fringe of brush there was an open space, but as we reached this, both paused, stricken dumb by horror at the sight which met our view. The ground before us was strewn with dead, and mutilated bodies, and was black with ashes where the teepees had been burned, and their contents scattered broadcast.

Never before had I seen such view of devastation, of relentless, savage cruelty, and I gave utterance to a sudden sob, and shrunk back against D'Artigny's arm, hiding my eyes with my hand. He stood and stared, motionless, breathing heavily, unconsciously gripping my arm.

"Mon Dieu!" he burst forth, at last.

useful!" He stooped and picked it up from under the bench. "One thing is certain—its useless to remain here; they have left the place as bare as a desert. 'Tis my choice that we make the Des Plaines before dark."

The Des Plaines was a narrow stream, flowing quietly through prairie land, although bordered along its shores by a thin fringe of trees. We moved down along its eastern bank for perhaps a half league, when we came to the edge of a swamp, and made camp. D'Artigny built a fire, and prepared my tent of boughs, while Barbeau waded out around a point in search of the wrecked canoe. He came back just at dusk towing it behind him through the shallow water, and the two men managed to drag it far enough up the bank to enable the water to drain out. Later, aided by a flaming torch, we looked it over, and decided the canoe could be made to float again. It required two days' work, however, before we ventured to trust ourselves to its safety.

But the dawn of the third day saw us afloat on the sluggish current, the two men plying improvised paddles to increase our speed, while I busied myself in keeping the frail craft free from water by constant use of a tin-cup.

Both men believed there was peace in the valley, except for the jealousy between the white factions at Fort St. Louis, and that the various Algonquin tribes were living quietly in their villages under protection of the Rock. D'Artigny described what a wonderful sight it was, looking down from the high hillsides to the broad meadows below, covered with teepees, and alive with peaceful Indians. He named the tribes which had gathered there for protection, trusting in La Salle, and believing De Tonty their friend—Illini, Shawnees, Abenakis, Miami, Mohegans—at one time reaching a total of twenty thousand souls.

Owing to the leaking of our canoe, and many difficulties experienced, we were three days in reaching the spot where the Illinois and the Fox rivers joined their waters, and swept forward in one broad stream. The time of our arrival at this spot was early in the afternoon, and, as D'Artigny said, Fort St. Louis was situated scarce ten miles below, our long journey seemed nearly ended. We anticipated reaching there before night, and, in spite of my fear of the reception awaiting us, my heart was light with hope and expectation.

I was but a girl in years, excitement was still to me a delight, and I had listened to so many tales, romantic, wonderful, of this wilderness fortress, perched upon a rock, that my vivid imagination had weaved about it an atmosphere of marvel. The beauty of the view from its hillside, the vast concourse of Indians encamped on the plains below, and those men guarding its safety—the faithful comrades of La Salle in explorations of the unknown, De Tonty, Boileau, and all the others, had long since become to my mind the incarnation of romantic adventure. Wilderness born, I could comprehend and appreciate their toils and dangers, and my dreams centered about this great, lonely rock, on which they had established a home. But the end was not yet. Just below the confluence of the rivers there was a village of the Tamarons, and the prow of our canoe touched the bank, while D'Artigny stepped ashore amid a tangle of low-growing bushes, that he might have speech with some of the warriors, and thus learn conditions at the fort. With his foot on the bank, he turned laughing, and held out his hand to me.

"Come, madame," he said, pleasantly, "you have never seen a village of our western tribes; it will interest you."

I joined him gladly, my limbs feeling awkward under me, from long crouching in the boat, yet the climb was not difficult, and he held back the bushes to give me easy passage. Beyond the fringe of brush there was an open space, but as we reached this, both paused, stricken dumb by horror at the sight which met our view. The ground before us was strewn with dead, and mutilated bodies, and was black with ashes where the teepees had been burned, and their contents scattered broadcast.

Never before had I seen such view of devastation, of relentless, savage cruelty, and I gave utterance to a sudden sob, and shrunk back against D'Artigny's arm, hiding my eyes with my hand. He stood and stared, motionless, breathing heavily, unconsciously gripping my arm.

"Mon Dieu!" he burst forth, at last.

useful!" He stooped and picked it up from under the bench. "One thing is certain—its useless to remain here; they have left the place as bare as a desert. 'Tis my choice that we make the Des Plaines before dark."

The Des Plaines was a narrow stream, flowing quietly through prairie land, although bordered along its shores by a thin fringe of trees. We moved down along its eastern bank for perhaps a half league, when we came to the edge of a swamp, and made camp. D'Artigny built a fire, and prepared my tent of boughs, while Barbeau waded out around a point in search of the wrecked canoe. He came back just at dusk towing it behind him through the shallow water, and the two men managed to drag it far enough up the bank to enable the water to drain out. Later, aided by a flaming torch, we looked it over, and decided the canoe could be made to float again. It required two days' work, however, before we ventured to trust ourselves to its safety.

But the dawn of the third day saw us afloat on the sluggish current, the two men plying improvised paddles to increase our speed, while I busied myself in keeping the frail craft free from water by constant use of a tin-cup.

Both men believed there was peace in the valley, except for the jealousy between the white factions at Fort St. Louis, and that the various Algonquin tribes were living quietly in their villages under protection of the Rock. D'Artigny described what a wonderful sight it was, looking down from the high hillsides to the broad meadows below, covered with teepees, and alive with peaceful Indians. He named the tribes which had gathered there for protection, trusting in La Salle, and believing De Tonty their friend—Illini, Shawnees, Abenakis, Miami, Mohegans—at one time reaching a total of twenty thousand souls.

"What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

What meaneth this? Are the wolves again loose in the valley?"

He drew me back, until we were both concealed behind a fringe of leaves, his whole manner alert, every instinct of the woodsman instantly awakened here hidden," he whispered, "until I learn the truth; we may face grave peril below."

He left me trembling and white-rimmed, yet I made no effort to restrain him. The horror of those dead bodies gripped me, but I would not have him know the terror which held me captive. With utmost caution he crept forth, and I lay in the shadow of the covert, watching his movements. Body after body he alive, and able to tell the story. But there was none. At last he stood erect, satisfied that none beside the dead were on that awful spot, and came back to me.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

Mrs. A. Barnes. Jacob Daubert has purchased the B. L. Rolfe residence.

Miss Pullys of Monticello spent Saturday in Broadhead, the guest of Miss Alpi.

Mr. Warner spent Sunday at the home of his parents in Plattville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Stabler and children, Milcent, Ben and Vivian, of Spring Grove township, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Hahn.

Joy A. H. Shotts of Oregon was the guest of Editor and Mrs. G. D. Dixon over Sunday.

NOTICE—The Gazette is on sale in Broadhead at Miller's News Stand.

LEYDEN

Leyden, Oct. 22.—J. E. Kennedy of Jansville was a business caller in Leyden Friday.

J. Gilbert and W. Pratt entertained hay bakers Thursday and Friday.

James and Bernard Riley spent the weekend at the home of their sister, Mrs. J. Chesbro, in Elgin, Ill.

Mrs. J. Conway has returned home after a visit with relatives in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert spent Wednesday at the L. Burkheimer home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Whaley of Jansville were visitors at the home of W. Pratt recently.

James Conway is hauling rye to Jansville.

Mr. and Mrs. Burkheimer and daughter, Kathryn, and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson motored to Rockford and Camp Grant Sunday.

Mrs. W. Pratt and sons, Herchel and Lynn spent Sunday with the former's mother at Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Berge were Sunday visitors at P. Kelly's.

Mrs. D. Conway has returned home after spending a week at the home of her parents.

EAST MILTON

East Milton, Oct. 22.—Mr. and Mrs. James Stobbs visited at the home of Mr. Campbell, near Lima, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Dickhoff and son spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jennings at the Six Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Casmore and family were at Beloit one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Prell spent a couple of days at the home of Fred Wunderlich near Whitewater, last week.

Miss Harriet Hayden spent Saturday evening with Miss Annett Ras-son of Milton.

Roy Fromader of Jansville, and Oscar Johnson of Beloit, spent Sunday with Nick Prell.

Man is Not Man Yet.

Progress is the law of life; man is not man yet.—Browning.

TO BE SURE OF SUITING EVERY TASTE—ITS ALWAYS SAFE TO CHOOSE

"I am a mild man," said the visitor, taking a firm hold on the stick he carried. "But unless I get some money to soothe my feelings there'll be trouble!"

"Was the boy bitten so very badly by my dog?" inquired the dog's owner.

"He was bitten exactly $5 worth

JANESVILLE GAZETTE
Classified Advertising

Published and Indexed for Quick Reference According to the Standard Classified Rates.

CLASSIFIED-RATES
 10¢ per line for first insertion.
 5¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.
 1¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.
 1¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.
 1¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.

NO AD TAKEN LESS THAN 25¢
 OR LESS THAN 2 LINES.

RATES furnished on application to the office.
 10¢ per line for first insertion.
 5¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.
 1¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.
 1¢ per line for each subsequent insertion.

BOTH PHONES 77.

SPECIAL NOTICES

ALWAYS
 When you think of it, think of C. E. Beers.

TOES TAKEN—The party who took the tools from the water plant at Crystal Springs are known and will be prosecuted.

LOST AND FOUND
 BAGGAGE—Found on Milwaukee Ave. Owner may have same by paying for this ad and identifying the property. W. J. Moore, 504 Milton Ave.

LOST—Lost dark blue serge belt. Call Bell phone 327.

LOST—Lost $10 in bills Saturday evening. Reward if returned to Gazette Office.

LOST—Lost black side gate to truck. Finder call Bell phone 1129. Reward.

LOST—Lost in Third ward on Gazette Office.

LOST—Lost neck piece with tails. Saturday, between Milton and Janesville. Finder please return to the Gazette office. Reward.

LOST—Lost by working girl, colored $5. Bell phone 1335.

SUIT CASE—Lost on Sunday, Oct. 21, on the road between Milton and Janesville, a suit case. Reward offered. Guy M. Anderson, Argyle, Wis.

THRASHING MAN'S BOOK—Lost. Account book. Finder please return to Gazette and receive reward.

FEMALE HELP WANTED
 DINING ROOM (Hill)—Dishwasher, housekeepers, private houses, hotels. Mrs. E. McCarthy, Licensed Agent. Both phones.

HIGHWASHER—Apply at once. Apollo.

HOUSEKEEPER—Good capable lady for family with two children. Inquire 274 Gazette.

STENOGRAPHER—Experienced stenographer for position in Janesville. Must be quick and accurate. Address office care of Gazette.

MALE HELP WANTED
 BOY—Of 16 to work in drug store. Smith's Pharmacy.

PAINT WORK—Good man. B. P. Cressman, R. C. phone.

FARM WORK—Man to work for two months. R. C. phone 86 C.

LABORERS—For Johnson Creek Construction work. J. P. Cullen, Construction Co.

TEAMSTERS—$3.00 per day. Apply Wilcox Gravel Co. J. W. Kehoe, Bell phone 885.

ROOMS FOR RENT
 CLOSE IN—Two modern furnished rooms. Bell phone 1494.

MODERN furnished rooms. Gentlemen preferred. Inquire Bell phone 1534.

LIGHT HOUSEKEEPING ROOMS
 THREE ROOMS—Furnished for light housekeeping. Bell phone 1325.

LIVESTOCK AND VEHICLES
 HORSES—Growthy Duroc Jersey boars weight 150 to 250 lbs. price $30.00 up. Fred Selck, Hanover, Wis. Foot phone 100.

SALES—Registered Holstein. Inquire August Fiedler, Edgerton, Wis. Rte. 1.

CATTLE—30 feeding steers, all good colors, will sell at right price if taken at once. R. C. phone 714.

CATTLE—Five head cattle, one Shorthorn, one pure blooded, one B. O. Gerstman, Rte. 5, Janesville, Wis.

PSE—Good hogs and wagon. Call Bell phone 1050.

POULTRY AND PET STOCK
 CHICKENS—Ten Rhode Island White hens one year old. R. C. phone 1055.

CHICKENS—White Wyandotte cockerels, pullets and hens, $1.00 up. Donald Douglas, R. C. phone 914 Red.

DUCKS—Pure bred Rouen ducks. Call R. C. phone 6587 J.

MISCELLANEOUS FOR SALE
 SEWING MACHINE—American adding and listing machine, this $88.00 adding machine for quick sale $40.00. H. E. Wemple, 27 So. Main St.

WHEEL TRAILER—C. H. Howard, Both phones.

HAND HEATER—I have a large hand heater in A. No. 1 shape. Call at 1111 Franklin Douglas, Dealer in Hardware and Stoves.

PAPER—Air tight linings for buildings, size 18x22 inches. Price 50¢ per hundred sheets. Ask for samples at Gazette Office.

STOVES—A few second hand base burner heating stoves, in good condition, cheap. H. L. McNamara.

MISCELLANEOUS WANTED
 HAVENPORT—Address X care of Gazette office.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS
 PIANOS—We have two slightly used pianos in excellent condition. Must be sold at once, we need the room. E. W. Rulow, Opp. Post House Park.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS
 COOK STOVE—Favorite. One set of dishes, dining room furniture. R. C. phone 158.

Good in fine condition for only $100. 231 North Terrace St. R. C. phone 725 Red.

DRESSER and commode. Both in good condition. 412 S. Academy St.

HEATER—Sixteen inch Stewart heater in the shape, 613 Prairie Ave.

RANGE—Six burner, nearly new, one large gas burner complete. Call 351 Western avenue, Bell 1681.

Misclassifications

of Gazette Classified Ads are not permitted under any conditions. Every classification is read carefully every day by the folks who want to take advantage of the opportunities listed on this page.

A Classified Ad that is misclassified "fools" the reader, who doesn't expect to see it where it is—and doesn't belong.

There is only one correct classification for any Classified Ad in The Gazette.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS

ROCKING CHAIRS—Bed room suite, gas iron and lamp, roll top desk, small table. Inquire Monday evening or Tuesday morning 215 Third St.

STOVES—All kinds second hand and new stoves in good condition. Will sell cheap. Janesville Housewrecking Co., 56 S. River St. Both phones.

WRITING DESK—Trunk, hall tree, gas iron, gas oven, iron bed, and various household goods. 441 South East St. Bell phone 382.

MACHINERY AND TOOLS

MANURE SPREADERS—New stock, prices right. Five year written guarantee with each spreader. H. P. Ratclaw & Co., Tiffany, Wis.

NITSCHER IMPLEMENT CO.

TRACTORS—One 20-35 Avery Tractor. One 16 H. P. Steam Engine. Two second hand silo fillers. Three second hand McCormick corn binders. One Milwaukee corn binder.

NITSCHER IMPLEMENT CO.
 28 N. Main St.

SPECIALS AT THE SHOPS

ALUMINUM WARE—We are showing a very complete line of Aluminum ware, reasonable prices. Frank Douglas, Practical Hardware.

KINGSBURY HAT—At $2.00. Saturday. Bros. 411 W. Milwaukee Street.

TYPEWRITERS—I have the general agency for the NEW ROYAL TYPEWRITERS. List price of this typewriter is $100.00, will sell at $75.00 for cash or on time payments to suit your convenience, and will allow you the market value on your old typewriter in trade. Wemple 17 S. Main St.

PLANTS AND SEEDS

FLORAL DESIGNS—Our specialty. Chas. Rathbun, W. Milwaukee St.

FLOUR AND FEED

BARLEY FLOUR—Makes a good substitute for wheat flour on wheats. Order a sack from J. J. Green and use it. Made by J. J. Green & Son.

FLOUR—Sells your barley and oats and feed your hogs, fowls, etc. Special price on good quality flour mids for Friday and Saturday $2.00 per 100 lbs. J. J. Green & Son.

OATS—Buy oats. Car on track now. Dairy feeds all meal, poultry feeds all kinds, etc. Poultry feeds of all kinds. J. J. Green & Son.

WHEAT—Bring us your wheat. We will trade it for flour. Bower City Feed Company.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES

DRAY BUSINESS—As I have other interests to look after, I am desirous of selling my dray business. A good opportunity for the right man. A. E. T. Fish.

PARTNER WANTED—Old established business. Experience not necessary. Address 353 care of Gazette.

PRINTING PLANT—Fully equipped printing plant in terms to responsible party. Address Plant care of Gazette.

SERVICES OFFERED

ASBESTOS—removed, sand and gravel delivered. Henry Kaylor, both phones.

BAGGAGE DEL. & TRANSFER—L. R. Wells will give you a good price. Office Promos, both phones.

RAZORS HONED—All kinds of razors honed. Work done promptly in a first class way. Tremo Bros.

SHOE REPAIRING—Expert work turned out in stated time. W. Welch, 55 S. Main St.

TEAMING—By day or hour. Ashes and refuse removed. C. A. La Rue, Bell phone 2063.

TRANSFER LINE CHAS. OSSEMAN—Have your ashes hauled every week. R. C. 560, Bell 628.

TIN WORK—Let me repair your cave trough. Clean your furnace or set up your stove for you. Expert workman, prices reasonable. (Ask for level) the man with the hardware. Both phones.

BUILDING AND CONTRACTING
 CARPENTER WORK—Of all kinds. H. M. Finch, Y. C. A.

J. A. SKINNER—Carpenter and builder. Both phones.

HEATING AND PLUMBING

H. E. HATHORN—603 N. Main Street. R. C. phone 282 Blue.

Estimates cheerfully furnished.

TRANSFER AND STORAGE

STORAGE—We now have space for household goods. The only ground floor brick warehouse in the city. Household goods exclusively. Best storage then sorry. C. W. Schwartz.

STORAGE—Let us store your furniture and stoves. Talk to Lowell.

INSURANCE

INSURANCE—I will insure you, your home, for life, ask to see my plan. Wemple 17 S. Main St.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

FORDS—1912 Ford touring car with 1915 body $160. 1917 Ford touring car with 1912 Ford with pannel and roadster. 1912 Ford with delivery body. 1917 Ford with De Luxe body. 1914 Ford touring car. 1915 Buick Garage, Ford Dealer.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE

NITSCHER IMPLEMENT CO.

USED CARS—Two second hand Fords. One second hand Reo. All in good condition.

NITSCHER IMPLEMENT CO.
 36 N. Main St.

STUDEBAKER—1916 model, four cylinder touring car, guaranteed. Inquire Strimple Garage.

USED CARS—Ford touring, good tires with extra fine mechanical condition, bargain. Moon touring, $125.00. Overland touring, starter and lights, $45.00. Perfection tires. Dodge cars. Janesville Auto Company.

AUTO SUPPLIES AND REPAIRS

SERVICE GARAGE—Expert electrical repair work on starters and batteries. Service Garage 415 W. Mil. St.

MOTORCYCLES AND BICYCLES

BICYCLE REPAIRING—Of the highest grade and quality. Bring yours for exchange. Wm. Ballentine, 122 Corn Exchange.

MOTORCYCLES—Second hand motorcycles. A No. 1 shape. Bicycle repair and sundries. Wm. Ballentine, 122 Corn Exchange.

FLATS FOR RENT

ACADEMY STREET S.—No. 606. 5 room flat, $9.

FRANKLIN ST. S.—Modern 6-room flat; hot water heat.

MILTON AVENUE—No. 404. Cozy warm 5 room flat.

MILWAUKEE STREET W.—Modern steam heated flat. Steve Grubb, N. Jackson St.

HOUSES FOR RENT

HOUSE—Six-room. $30.00. Bell phone 560. Nels Carlson.

JACKSON STREET S.—No. 215. 7 room house. Inquire Bell phone 1985.

MAIN STREET S.—No. 102. 9 room house, newly papered and painted. Inquire 10 S. Main St.

RIVERSIDE STREET—No. 216. 7 room house. Electric gas, hard and soft water. Inquire Bell phone 1955.

TERRACE ST. N.—No. 102. Phone Bell 455.

BARN AND GARAGES

BUILDING—Suitable for garage. $2.50 per month. Inquire 760 Bell, evenings.

WANTED TO RENT

MODERN HOUSE—8 or 10 rooms. R. C. phone 774 White.

BUSINESS PROPERTY FOR SALE

WEST SIDE—Prominent business block. Inquire F. L. Stevens.

HOUSES FOR SALE

JACKSON STREET—$150 cash buys nice house and large lot. Balance like rent. Inman & Reidel, 324 Hayes Block.

THE SKELLY RESIDENCE—Corner Milwaukee and Sinclair street, all modern conveniences. Inquire W. J. Skelly.

FOR SALE OR RENT

WASHINGTON ST.—233—Modern 12 room house. Furnace heat, gas, and water. Inquire P. Hammann, Bower City Bank.

MORTGAGES AND LOANS

THE WISCONSIN SAVINGS BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, can give you real help. We will do so if you will be as fair with us as we will be with you. Write us, or E. W. Lowell, Janesville, Wis.

AUCTION SALES

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25th, 10 a. m., will sell at public auction in Court House, five acres and lots to close Emma Gardner estate. Good chance to buy residence property reasonably. Jesse Earle, Attorney for Adm.

MONUMENTS

JANESVILLE MONUMENT CO.—Opp. P. O. Largest stock in country. Work guaranteed.

AUCTION DIRECTORY

Published FREE by the Gazette For the Benefit of Our Readers.

Oct. 25th—Wm. E. L. Emerald Green, W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 26—James Trow, 6 miles north of Albany. D. F. Finnane, auctioneer.

Oct. 27—Harry Pease, east city limits, Evansville. D. F. Finnane, auctioneer.

Oct. 29—J. D. Mitchell, 1 1/2 miles south of Beloit. Fred Laves, Auctioneer.

Oct. 30—Irvin Crandall, Milton Jct. W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Oct. 30—Frank Severs, 4 miles south of Clinton. Fred Laves, Auctioneer.

Oct. 30—Frank Mathias, 1 mile east of Footville on old Ira Fisher farm. John Ryan, auctioneer.

November 2—John Bron, 9 miles west of Beloit, Fred Laves, Auctioneer.

Nov. 7—Fred Wright, Evergreen Stock Farm, 2 miles S. E. Milton Jct. Robert Hager, Auctioneer.

Nov. 7—Patrick Tracy, town of Rock, Janesville R. F. D. No. 5. Col. W. T. Dooley, auctioneer.

Nov. 11—E. Keegan, 7 miles east of Evansville. John Ryan, auctioneer.

November 14—J. W. Allen, Klondike Farm, 1 mile north of Beloit. Fred Laves, Auctioneer.

Nov. 15—Bertman, 1 1/2 miles S. E. Evansville on Magnolia Road. D. F. Finnane, Auctioneer.

See the travel literature at the Gazette Travel Bureau. Large supply of beautiful booklets and scenic literature just received at the Gazette office.

BURNS AGENCY

Over Hall & Huebel

Have you a modern 5 room flat or cottage for rent? We can rent several of this class of places.

We have a good 80 acres east of town and one fully stocked west of town that are priced right for cash or will exchange.

Rentals, real-estate loans, life and fire insurance our specialties.

BURNS AGENCY

105 W. Milwaukee St.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
 STATE OF WISCONSIN.
 County Court for Rock County.

In Probate.
 Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday of March A. D. 1918, being March 5th, 1918, at 9 o'clock a. m., the following matters will be heard, considered and adjusted:

All claims against James Condon Sr. late of the City of Janesville in said County deceased.

All claims must be presented for allowance to said Court, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on or before the 16th day of February A. D. 1918, or be barred.

Dated October 16th 1917.

By CHARLES L. FIFELE, County Judge.

Roger G. Cunningham, Attorney for Executors.

STATE OF WISCONSIN

Circuit Court, Rock County.

Rosina Seoville, Plaintiff.

Sam Seoville, Defendant.

The State of Wisconsin to the said Defendant.

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the Court aforesaid; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the complaint, of which a copy is herewith served upon you.

RICHARDSON & DUNWIDIE, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

P. O. address Lovejoy Block, Janesville, Rock County, Wis.

SUMMONS

STATE OF WISCONSIN.

Circuit Court, Rock County.

Louise P. Allen, Plaintiff.

Eugene Allen, Defendant.

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN TO SAID DEFENDANT:

You are hereby summoned to appear within twenty days after service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service, and defend the above entitled action in the Court aforesaid; and in case of your failure so to do, judgment will be rendered against you according to the complaint, of which a copy is herewith served upon you.

Roger G. Cunningham, Plaintiff's Attorney.

P. O. Address Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

STATE OF WISCONSIN.

County Court for Rock County.

In Probate.

Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday of March A. D. 1918, being March 5th, 1918, at 9 o'clock a. m., the following matters will be heard, considered and adjusted:

All claims against James H. Burns late of the City of Janesville, in said County, deceased.

All claims must be presented for allowance to said Court, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on or before the 16th day of February A. D. 1918, or be barred.

Dated October 16th 1917.

By CHARLES L. FIFELE, County Judge.

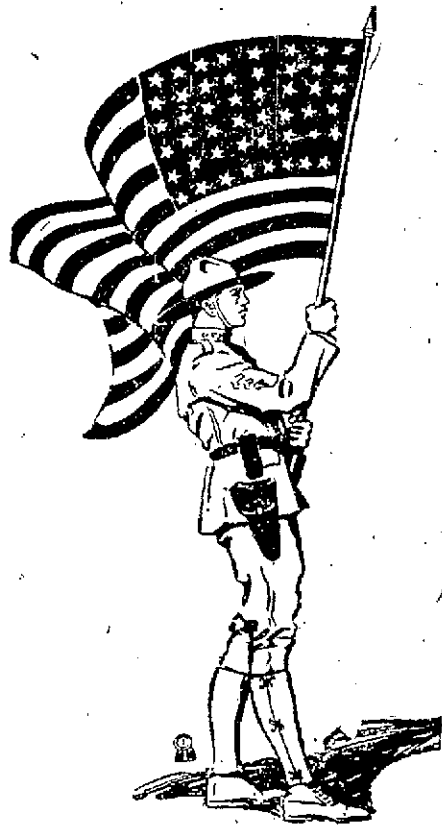

FORECLOSURE SALE

STATE OF WISCONSIN, CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.

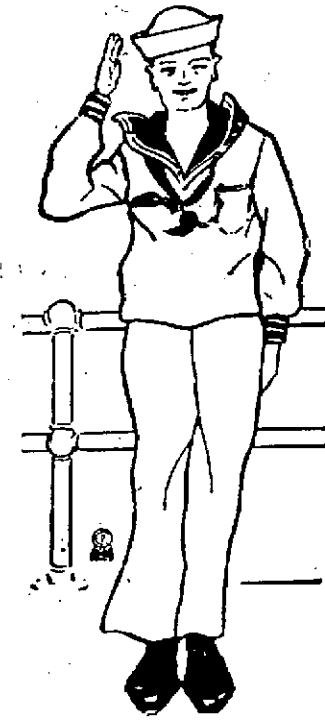

Bower City Bank, Plaintiff.

Christ Peterson, Lizzie Peterson, his wife, Warren Rossiter and Robert B. Rossiter, Defendants.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that by virtue of and in pursuance to a judgment of foreclosure and sale rendered in the above entitled action at a regular term of said Circuit Court for Rock County, Wisconsin, on the 16th day of October, A. D. 1916, in favor of the above named plaintiff, and against the above named defendants, I shall offer for sale and sell at public auction for cash to the highest bidder at the western front door of the Court House in the City of Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin, on the 29th day of November A. D. 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day the following described land and premises in and by said judgment of

What Can I Do? What Can You Do? What Can We Do?

We can all support our own government. We are a nation of many bloods, but we are all Americans.

It is the duty of every man, regardless of blood or ancestry to support his own home government.

There are no party politics in this issue. We must stand for a vigorous prosecution a successful and early termination of this war or we are against the United States.

Any American who does not loyally support the United States will suffer financially, socially and carry to his grave a consciousness of inward shame.

We do not loyally support the government if we do one jot less than our share.

You have not been called to fight.

You go home each day to your family where you are warm, well fed, well clothed and comfortable.

Young men are making great sacrifices for you—even offering their lives.

These same young men are also subscribing for millions of dollars of the Liberty Loan to be paid out of savings from their $30 per month. What can you say for yourself? What is your relative share? Go into your closet and figure this out and act on the result dictated by your own conscience.

These young men must be fed, clothed and equipped.

Wives have sent their husbands—little children have sent their fathers.

You can send your dollars—get them back whole—and increased by 4 per cent interest.

Any of you can buy a bond—some two—some large amounts.

Many widows have loaned their sons and also their mites. What kind of a man or woman are you if you do not loan your share?

You risk nothing. You get a bond that is secured by the manhood, the honor and the resources of the greatest and richest nation the world has ever known.

Your bonds will be as good as money—you can spend them as if they were gold.

Many merchants will accept them in trade for more than their face value.

You can buy these bonds in installment payments. Banks will arrange this for you.

You can save enough to pay for some bonds, thereby benefiting your country and yourself—laying by a nest of eggs for old age or your family.

The feel of a United States bond will send a current of joy through your whole system.

These bonds should be in every home. Buy them for your children—the sense of possession will do your boy or your girl great good—they will learn to save for more—they will feel an added interest in their country which they are going to control.

The subscription time is near the end—get in under the wire—subscribe for all you can manage—so you can say to yourself “I am no SLACKER.”

The more you take—according to your ability—the prouder you will feel and the more you will benefit yourself.

This is your business. It is the most important you will have this last week of October.

If you have already subscribed maybe you should take some more. You know. You are your own judge. Have you made a decision which you would say was just as applied to others in your situation?

Go to a bank and subscribe for some and some more.

M. J. Jeffris

Chairman of the Rock County
Liberty Loan Committee.

Donation of this space by Janesville Machine Co.